The Six Books of Proclus, the Platonic Successor, on The Theology of Plato

Written by Proclus & Translated by Thomas Taylor. (Book VII Written by Thomas Taylor)

Greek: ΠΕΡΙ ΤΗΣ ΚΑΤΑ ΠΛΑΤΩΝΑ ΘΕΟΛΟΓΙΑΣ

Latin: Theologia Platonica

Alternate English Title: Platonic Theology

A Seventh book was written by the translator, Thomas Taylor, in order to supply the deficiency of another book on this subject, which was written by Proclus, but since lost.

According to the 1995 Prometheus Trust edition Book 3 Chapter 1 of this translation contains Chapters 1-4 from the original Greek, Chapter 2 contains the Greek chapters 5-6 and Chapter 3 contains the Greek Chapters 7-8. Thereafter, the translated and Greek chapters match beginning at Chapter 9.

Interesting Fact: A quotation from Proclus is included on the cover of Harmonices Mundi Liber I despite the fact that Johannes Kepler's mother had been recently accused of witchcraft and threatened with torture.

Read by Geoffrey Edwards. Meta-Coordinated & Proof Listened by David Craig.

Total running time: 40:22:39
